

Name

Patrick cycles his bicycle at home and to school. He is a very good cyclist and doesn't think he needs to wear a helmet. Help Patrick understand how important it is to always wear a helmet by filling in the blanks below.

A helmet protects your who different , colours and pat
A helmet has a hard shell on the on the inside. There are together to make sure the helmet stays on your	on both sides which clip
If you fall off your bicycle and you can stop your head from getting you can skids on the road so that you do not hurt cushions the blow and stops your brain from get	The hard your neck. The
Even the best cyclist can fall off their bicycle. A make you off your bike. A caryou. Stones or oil on the road could make your between the could make your between	r could into
This can happen	or anywhere -nobody ever plans
If you are , you will anytime you are cycling your bicycle. Remember of the road too!

Missing words

accident	fall	hit	shell	straps anytime	foam	hurt	sizes	smart
crash	head	outside	skid	rules

